

LEARNING PATHWAYS

PUBLIC SCHOOL OPTIONS

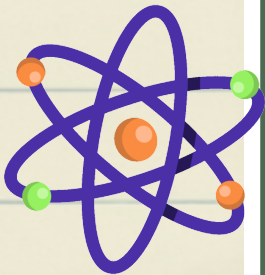

DISTRICT & CHARTER

- Register with school
- Publicly-funded Special Education (SPED) support for public-school learning environment
- State-certified teachers
- Fixed in-person schedule
- Credits may be earned (high school students)
- Diploma awarded upon graduation

ONLINE PUBLIC SCHOOL

- Refer to your school district's website or Oregon Department of Education for more information
- Free tuition/federally funded
- Register with school
- Student must be released from resident school district to attend
- Credits may be earned (high school students)
- Self-directed learning
- Staff support from school
- Diploma awarded upon high school graduation

HOME SCHOOL (TRADITIONAL)

- Parents or legal guardians are required to notify the local ESD for each child that will be homeschooled.
- Online notification submission - Provides immediate confirmation and access to a portal for parents/guardians. Other notification options include completing a fillable form or submitting a written letter. Formulario de notificación electrónico: kim.rencher@douglasesd.k12.or.us
- Students educated at the expense of private individuals (parents)
- Students with special needs may have access to publicly-funded supports upon district approval
- Parents provide curriculum and content
- State testing assessments required in third, fifth, eighth and tenth grades. Families arrange testing sessions and may be requested to submit scores to the local ESD. Families new to homeschooling have an 18 month grace period before children must be assessed
- No high school credits earned or state-issued diploma awarded
- Grading procedures determined by families.
- Co-op options organized by parents

WWW.DOUGLASHOMESCHOOL.COM

